ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The City of Norco, in partnership with the Riverside County Transit Agency and with funds provided by Measure A, is pleased to provide transportation services to thousands of seniors since November of 2001. This door to door service allows seniors to maintain important social contact with their peers, and preserve their independence.

SENIOR SHUTTLE SERVICES

The senior "door to door" shuttle program provides free transportation to Norco residents within a 30 mile radius outside of the Norco city limits. Trips include: medical appointments, prescription pick up, postal services, banking, bill paying, as well as transportation to and from the Norco Senior Center.

Additionally, the shuttle bus provides transportation to the following locations:
