

City Hall Weekly Highlights

May 5, 2016

CITY MANAGER:

Strategic Planning Workshop: Saturday, May 21, 2016 has been confirmed as the date for the City's Strategic Planning Workshop. The Strategic Planning Workshop will provide a forum for staff, Council, Commissioners and other interested stakeholders to set key priorities that will guide city operations for the next 3-5 years. The workshop will take place at Nellie Weaver Hall and will run from 9:00 AM – 3:00 PM. For more information, please contact Julie Houser at (951) 270-5651 or jhouser@ci.norco.ca.us

Save the Date - Memorial Day Event: This year's Memorial Day Event in recognition of our military will be at George Ingalls Veterans Memorial Plaza on Monday, May 30th at 11:00 AM. Part of the planned events for the day includes a continuous "Flag Salute" from 9:00 AM – 1:00 PM. If you are a military veteran and would like to participate in the continuous flag salute, please contact Ms. Pam Smith at (951) 278-2707 to sign up. The guest speaker for this event will be Lieutenant General Brooks L. Bash

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT:

Business Appreciation: At its meeting of May 18, 2016, the City Council will recognize Polly's Pies, the latest honoree in the City's Business Appreciation Initiative. The Economic Development Advisory Council (EDAC) nominates local businesses to be honored through this program established by Mayor Bash, and a blog in the Economic Development section of the City's website pays tribute to them. Any establishment making a meaningful contribution to Norco's business community, whether Fortune 500 company or small mom-and-pop enterprise, is eligible for recognition.

Sales Tax Revenue: Staff met with HdL, the City's sales tax consultants, to review sales tax figures for the 4th Quarter of 2015. Yet another strong quarter was reported, 8.6% higher than the same quarter of last year, with auto sales, restaurants/hotels and building/construction leading the way. Norco's per capita sales continue to be considerably higher than Riverside County as a whole or the State of California, as well as some neighboring communities. This was the first full quarter in which SilverLakes was operational, and although the economic impact of the venue is difficult to quantify after a single quarter, some positive effects are evident. Sales tax revenue at many nearby restaurants, for instance, was significantly higher than during the same quarter of the previous year, which confirms staff's own survey research.

Q4 2015

City of Norco Sales Tax Update

First Quarter Receipts for Fourth Quarter Sales (October - December 2015)

Norco In Brief

Norco's receipts from October through December were 8.6% above the fourth sales period in 2014. Excluding reporting aberrations, actual sales were up 6.4%.

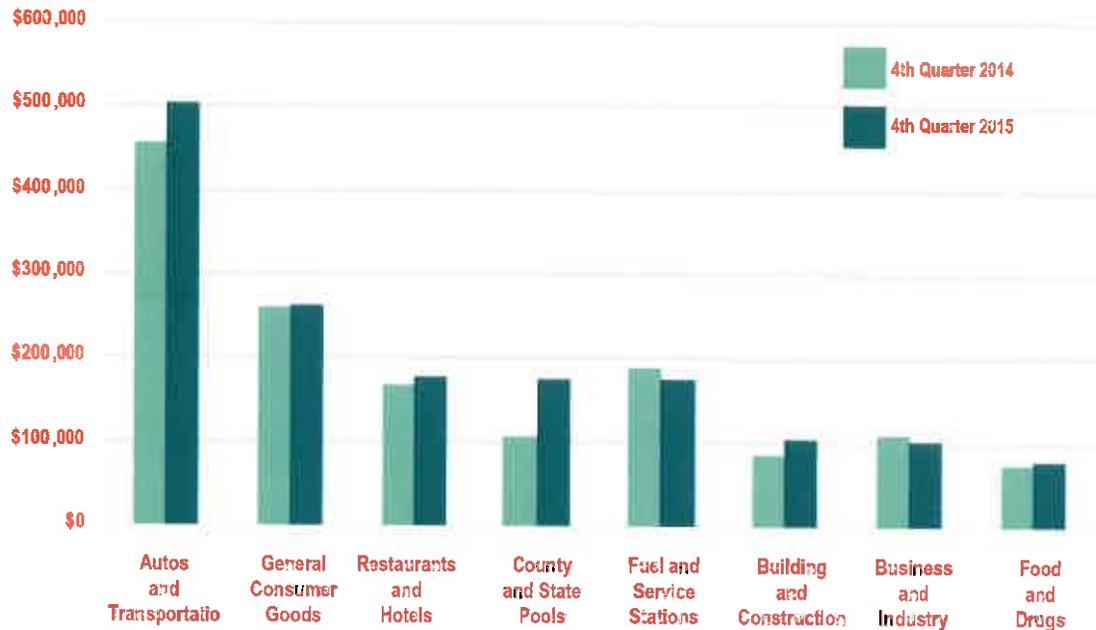

The City experienced a strong sales quarter for autos and transportation. Revenue from building and construction showed solid gains when compared to the year-ago period. Restaurants and hotels posted higher returns than the same quarter last year.

The drop in retail gas prices was responsible for the decrease in service stations. Business closures negatively impacted used auto dealers.

The City's share of the countywide use tax pool increased 62.8% over the comparison period.

Net of aberrations, taxable sales for all of Riverside County grew 2.9% over the comparable time period; the Southern California region was up 2.2%.

California Overall

Excluding accounting aberrations, local sales and use tax receipts from the fourth quarter of 2015 ended 2.6% above 2014's holiday quarter.

Solid returns for autos, RVs, building materials and most categories of restaurants were the primary contributors to the statewide increase. The growth in online shopping for merchandise shipped from out-of-state continued to raise countywide use tax allocation pool revenues.

The gains were largely offset by a 13.2% drop in tax receipts from service stations and other fuel-related expenditures. Except for value price clothing and shoes, most categories of general consumer goods were flat or down, reflecting heavy price discounting to reduce excess holiday inventories and the impact of the strong dollar on international tourist spending.

With some exceptions, particularly in the areas of computers and agricultural chemicals, overall receipts from business and industrial expenditures were also down primarily due to cutbacks in capital spending by energy producers and manufacturers of exported goods, equipment and raw materials.

Intense competition and price pressures resulted in only modest gains in receipts from grocers and pharmacists with the largest increase in this group coming from liquor stores and marijuana dispensaries.

HdL's most recent economic consensus forecast anticipates similar modest gains through 2016 with an eventual peak in auto sales replaced by strong sales of building and construction materials for home improvement and new housing. A recovery in tax receipts from fuel is not expected until the end of the year.

The Triple Flip Is Over!

Beginning with taxes collected in January and forward, local governments will again receive their full share of Bradley-Burns sales and use tax revenues thus ending an eleven-year program known as the Triple Flip.

The program began in 2004 when voters approved a $15 billion bond issue to cover operating deficits resulting from a combination of that year's economic downturn plus failure to offset the loss of revenue from the Governor's popular reduction in the 65-year-old, 2% Motor Vehicle In-Lieu Tax.

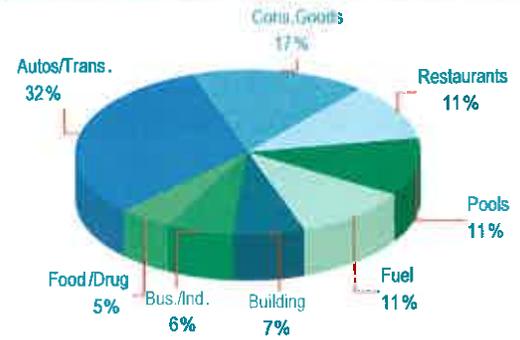

The State retained 25% of local sales tax to guarantee the bonds, reimbursed local governments from monies meant for schools and replaced the money taken from schools with state general funds thus creating what became known as the Triple Flip. The financing scheme resulted in interest payments totaling $4.8 billion, plus another $200 million in administrative fees while creating new budget challenges for local governments.

It also resulted in voter passage of constitutional amendment Proposition 1A that bars state tampering with local sales and use tax revenues in the future.

Aggressive Driving-From our Friends at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration:

What costs society $44,193 a minute?

(answer)...check your speedometer as you drive home!

Exceeding the posted limit or driving too fast for conditions is one of the most prevalent factors contributing to traffic crashes. Speed is a factor in nearly one-third of all fatal crashes. Speed-related crashes cost society more than $23 billion a year.

Too few drivers view speeding as an immediate risk to their personal safety or the safety of others. Yet, speeding reduces a driver's ability to steer safely around curves or objects in the roadway, and it extends the distance required to stop a vehicle in emergency situations.

Crash severity increases with the speed of the vehicle at impact. Inversely, the effectiveness of restraint devices like air bags and safety belts, and vehicular construction features such as crumple zones and side member beams decline as impact speed increases.

The probability of death, disfigurement, or debilitating injury grows with higher speed at impact. Such consequences double for every 10 mph over 50 mph that a vehicle travels.

Many drivers don't consider this. They slow their speed in residential areas, or when the weather turns bad. To them, a few miles an hour over the posted speed limit is an acceptable risk. Their excuse-other drivers do it. They believe the worst that can happen to them is to receive a speeding ticket.

Drivers like this are wrong. Maybe even dead wrong, because driving too fast for conditions or exceeding the posted speed limit can kill you.

Consider These Speed-Related Facts:

Rural roads account for over 60 percent of all speed-related fatal crashes.

Sixty six percent of speed-related crashes involved a single vehicle.

Sixty percent of all speed-related fatal crashes occurred at night (6pm to 6am).

Drivers involved in speed-related fatal crashes are more likely to have a history of traffic violations.

On average, 1,000 Americans are killed every month in speed-related crashes.

Youth and Speeding:

Of fall drivers aged 15-24 years of age involved in fatal crashes, 32 percent were speeding.

Of drivers under the age of 21 involved in fatal crashes, 38 percent of the male and 24 percent of the female drivers were speeding.

Economic and Environmental Costs of Speeding:

Fuel consumption increases steadily above 45 mph with passenger cars and light trucks using approximately 50 percent more fuel traveling at 75 mph than they do at 55 mph.

FIRE DEPARTMENT / CAL FIRE:

Wildfire Awareness Week:

Each year California highlights the importance of wildfire prevention and preparedness by declaring the first week of May as “Wildfire Awareness Week”. This year during the week of May 1–7, CAL FIRE and fire departments across the state want to remind residents of the dangers posed by wildfires and the simple steps that should be followed to prepare for and prevent them. Despite getting some much-needed rain this winter, we’re not out of the woods yet when it comes to the drought. Because droughts increase the risk of wildfires, being prepared is as important as ever.

<http://www.ReadyForWildfire.org>

ARE YOU READY FOR WILDFIRE?

The State had one of the driest winters on record this year and CAL FIRE officials are urging the public to visit ReadyForWildfire.org to educate themselves on how they can help protect their family and give their home a fighting chance during this year’s heightened fire danger.

The site is packed with valuable information that includes: defensible space guidelines, evacuation guides, emergency preparedness tips, downloadable brochures and more.

The site also gives instructions on what to do in case residents are trapped during a wildfire.

It only takes three simple steps to prepare for a wildfire... Ready, Set, Go!

STEP 1: GET READY...	STEP 2: GET SET...	STEP 3: GO!
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Maintain 100-feet of defensible space.Harden your home with fire-safe building materials.Remove tree branches 6 feet from the ground.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Assemble an emergency supply kit.Create an evacuation plan.Identify an emergency meeting place.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Be ready to evacuate early.Plan several routes to your evacuation place.Shut all windows and doors, leaving them unlocked.

CALIFORNIA IS NO STRANGER TO WILDFIRES. WITH THOUSANDS OF WILDFIRES OCCURRING EVERY YEAR, CAL FIRE WANTS WILDLAND RESIDENTS TO TAKE EXTRA PRECAUTIONS TO ENSURE THAT THEIR FAMILY AND PROPERTY ARE PREPARED WHEN A WILDFIRE APPROACHES.
