Gabriel Martin, EDAC Member

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE: Mayor Kevin Bash

EDAC BUSINESS ITEMS AS FOLLOWS:

1. DISCUSSION / ACTION ITEM:

A. Interview of EDAC Applicants: Kathy Azevedo and Tina Gregory

Due to the absences of Chair Malone and Vice Chair Renfree, Member Schwab was designated as the acting chair of the meeting. He explained that the EDAC would perform an interview of all applicants for a vacancy on the EDAC. Acting Chair Schwab stated that the interview would follow the format of a panel interview. The applicants would have time to give an opening and a closing statement, and then each EDAC member would have the opportunity to ask the applicants a question. He explained that the EDAC members would be allowed to ask follow-up questions after the applicants had answered each question. Acting Chair Schwab stated that there were originally two applicants for the vacancy: Kathy Azevedo and Tina Gregory. Mrs. Azevedo withdrew her application; therefore Mrs. Gregory was the only applicant present.

Tina Gregory gave an opening statement. She explained her interest in EDAC, along with her background and experience in hospitality, marketing and destination development.

The EDAC asked Mrs. Gregory seven questions that were written by EDAC members, along with several follow-up questions. Mrs. Gregory expressed that she would use her experience in
