2. PRESENTATION:

A. 2016 Strategic Plan (City Manager)

City Manager Andy Okoro told the Council about the City Council approved Strategic Plan for Norco. He explained to the Members what actions plans were and how important they are in order to achieve set goals. Lastly, City Manager Okoro explained to the Council some examples of the Norco City Council's action plans.

- Prior to the next agenda item, Deputy City Clerk Germain gave Danielle Smith her Oath of Office for her service on the Norco Youth Advisory Council; as she was absent for the first meeting of the Youth Advisory.

3. DISCUSSION ITEM:

A. Start Discussion on Potential Skate Park and/or Youth Center

There was very much discussion on having some type of youth center put into Norco among the Members.

October 25, 2016

The idea of a skate park was brought up by Chair Kavianian who feels he has to travel too far to ride his skateboard.

Member Kabbara felt it was a good idea, but may not have a lot of interest.

Member Young brought up the possibility of having people pay to get in. Another member brought up security issues and Chair Kavianian suggested that there could be a police officer in charge of patrolling the area.

Some members were asked to do research. Vice Chair Alvarez, Secretary Strojek, and Member Ocampo will research youth centers in other cities; Chair Kavianian and Member Smith will research skate parks in other cities; and Member Kabbara will research the interest of a youth center in Norco and security for the possible center.

4. NYAC / STAFF COMMUNICATIONS:

A. Next meeting on November 8, 2016

B. Update on Logging Volunteer Hours

Deputy City Clerk Germain advised members that NYAC meetings count as volunteer hours. She encouraged the Members to keep track of their hours.

ADJOURNMENT: Chair Kavianian adjourned the meeting at 7:10 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Jorgina Strojek, Secretary
Norco Youth Advisory Council
