CITY OF NORCO

CONTACT:
City Clerk
951.270.5617

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE April 28, 2011

There is currently one seat vacated on the Economic Development Advisory Council ("EDAC"), which will be filled by an appointment to fill the term expiring June of 2013.

The purpose of the EDAC is to propose, prepare, and adopt recommendations to the City Council for the improvement of the economy within the City, which will result in the creation of new jobs, and other benefits, to all the residents of the City so as to help make the City a better place to live and work, while retaining the City's rural lifestyle. Specifically, the EDAC will help coordinate an ongoing development strategy aimed at increasing sales tax revenues received by the City and generally improving the economic viability of the City, encouraging relationships between commerce and the consumer and enhancing the business fabric of the City. The duties of the EDAC members are of a high civic nature and all members shall serve without compensation.

EDAC membership is defined and appointed as follows:

- EDAC members will be recommended by the EDAC and appointed by the City Council;
- Nine members will serve on the EDAC, including two members of the City Council; and
- New members appointed to the EDAC will be selected from the business community. Members are not required to live in Norco; however, members should have a significant stake in the success of the business community.

Persons wishing to serve on the EDAC are invited to contact the Office of the City Clerk at 951.270.5617 to request an application or pick up an application at City Hall, 2870 Clark Avenue, Norco, California 92860. The deadline for receipt of applications has been extended to 6 p.m. on Thursday, May 19, 2011.
